REPORTS

THE COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

to the
EIGHTY-SIXTH SESSION of the

HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Meeting in
JOHNSON CITY, TENNESSEE

October 16, 1929.

Through the medium of a Composite Report we, as your District Superintendents bring to you our greetings and express our gratefulness, that we are yet alive.

With mingled feelings we come to the end of another Conference year, anxious about what may be the results of the year's work, as the reports of the various charges are filed in. Whether we have advanced or receded, we feel under the varied circumstances in which we have carried on our work we have done the best we could.

A View of Our Field

Holston Conference, as it is, in territory occupying the Tennessee valley in the main, a cross section of the New River Valley and the head waters of the Roanoke river; with Kentucky, West Virginia and the Cumberland Mountains to our north; North Carolina, Georgia and the Big Smoky Mountains to our south; our eastern boundry Roanoke, Virginia, and our western South Pittsburgh, Tennessee, comprising east Tennessee and southwest Virginia.

This section is very well churched and well supplied with ministers, save in the back mountain sections. A survey of the various denominational year books of Tennessee and Virginia will show, one church building for every 312 persons and one church building for every 147 members of the church, as 45% of the people belong to the various churches; there is one minister for every 361 of the population and one minister for every 162 church members. These figures do not tell the full story, either as to churches and ministry for there are several minor sects that do not publish any statistics or keep any record of their work, carrying on religious work in this section. Further there are many lay preachers of the various recorded denominations who carry on work in the field. Facing these facts it makes our progress slower, as such close competition makes our work harder to do.

The Ministers

A vein of thanksgiving should pervade our body for we have passed through the year without a single break in our active ranks by death; only sadness came to the home of W. C. Winslow in the loss of his wife. No serious afflictions have seized the ministers to incapacitate them for any length of time, only a few minor afflictions have come to any that would interfere with their duties. All have had a year of opportunity for a year of productive work, which in the main have been utilized by the men, and they have gone forth on their various charges with a holy zeal for His Kingdom to dare and to do. The sick have been visited, house to house work has been carried on; revivals have been held, sinners converted and many have joined the church, the World's causes have been presented and we are sure His cause has been advanced.

All the charges were filled with pastors at the Conference Session, or very soon afterwards and the work has carried on through the year with but little interruptions. In January C. V. Bellamy of Mountain City was transferred to the Alabama Conference and Stationed at Simpson church Birmingham, and G. T. Byrd was transferred in from the Alabama Conference and placed at Mountain City.

In the Retired ranks, only two so far as we know have dropped out of the ranks militant and joined the rankstriumphant, L. A. Rominger and W. S. Grant; and two widows of retired ministers died during the year, Mrs. E. C. Ferguson and Mrs. L. A. Rominger.

Religious Education

One of the most promising fields of religious activity of a permanent sort in this Holston Territory is among the children and the young people. One of the cheering notes is the note of fine progress in our Sunday Schools. Last year we were confronted with a loss in Sunday School enrollment of around two thousand and a loss of over twelve hundred in average attendance; but the prospect looks good for the recouping the losses of last year, and equalling the 1927 record if not surpassing it. The almost 50,000 who are enrolled in our school are our fertile fields for church membership and they are being taught and trained with this idea in mind.

The Director of Religious Education, H. G. Williamson and his corps of helpers have rendered very valuable and helpful service during the year in systemizing the work of the young people, and teacher training classes have been conducted, Bible study classes have been organized and Vacation Bible Schools conducted, in practically every section of the conference.

The Epworth League work is perhaps in better shape in the conference, as a whole, than it has been for some years, and much constructive work is being done, in spiritual uplift and a cleaner recreational life. In August an Epworth League Institute under the directions of Dean Walter A. Smith and his assistants was conducted at Sevierville, and a fine and able group of young people attended and many leaguers returned to their local leagues enthused and with determined zeal to push the league work.

The Larger Parish idea is rapidly gaining recognition in our Holston Conference, while it is as yet in its experimental stage and its usefulness as to ultimate results are as yet to be demonstrated, yet we recognize its possibility for usefulness. There are at present two Larger Parishes in operation, Viz: Maryville Larger Parish and the Cleveland Larger Parish and others in the processes of formation.

Educational Institutions

Holston Conference is well located as to educational institutions, there are twenty-seven colleges of our own and other denominations including four state colleges in the bounds of the conference. Eighteen granting degrees and nine junior colleges, and twelve other gift supported schools of high school order, besides all the county high schools. It would seem that with so many schools there would be but little place for our four schools, but reports from them inform us that they are well supplied with students this year. The University of Chattanooga reports increased enrollment, Athens reports a fine response for the Endowment Campaign in the way of money, and new friends for the school which is evidenced by a fine increase in enrollment. Murphy Collegiate Institute did a fine year's work last year and has had a fine increase in students for this year; Pittman Center operated by the Board of Home Missions, is of High School classification and has had thirty per cent increase in students this year.

Women's Work

The Woman's Foreign and the Woman's Home Missionary Societies these two hand maidens of the church, each in their own way and in their own sphere, both at home and abroad have carried on a splendid work in sending forth workers and supplies to the needy. We feel that their work this year has been equal to other years and perhaps surpassing it.

Church Membership

There were 47,321 members on the various church rolls of Holston Conference reported last year; through personal Evangelism, through public Evangelism, and Decision Day service and special emphasis laid on the Easter season as time for the acceptance of Christ, there have been over fourteen hundred added to the churches on confession of faith. However this is not all clear gain as there are some to be canceled off by death, others by being lost, and still others lost in the reconstructions of the various church rolls; yet after all these reductions we are hoping for a gain.

The larger per cent of the charge in Holston Conference are rural and since there is going on a great migration from the country into town, the town churches are increasing in membership while the rural churches are gradually declining; since Christianity in America will win or lose with the Rural Church and with the Rural Preacher it behooves us to give more attention to both.

Church Property

Throughout the Conference nine new Churches have been completed and dedicated this year; the two most outstanding being the Red Bank church in the Chattanooga District costing around $35,000 and Johnson City in the Johnson City District costing around $200,000. There are several other new churches in the process of erection in the bounds of the Conference, some almost completed and others just beginning; all these will be completed next year.

There has been much debt paying going on this year and we are very glad indeed that this good work is going on as many of the churches are carrying too much debt. One point we need to guard against more closely than we have hitherto guarded, that is churches launching out in building programs with not sufficient money in sight which makes the borrows so heavy and the interest rate being so high that it makes the buildings cost at least twice as much as they should cost.

Ministerial Support

One of our administrative problems, as District Superintendents, is to get the various churches to put on a balanced program of ministerial support, on a pro-rata basis as the Discipline provides. They seem to think to raise the preachers salary they will get a better preacher, but many of our ministers permit this to be done at the expense of the other salaries; a glance at our minutes is sufficient to show this fact. Should the churches have put their salaries on a pro-rata basis last year and all come in their for their share as the Church provides; the District Superintendents would have received $20,103 as against $15,258. The Retired Minister would have received $20,103 as against $7,322; the Episcopal Fund would have received $2,250 as against $1,470.

Only a glance at the figures will show the Retired Minister woefully neglected last year, increased needs and diminished income. There are several churches in the Conference paying their pastor $2,400 cash salary and retired ministers $100, which should on last year basis been $240, and some only paying $25, and pastor $2,400. Some churches and pastors need to keep the Discipline and not to try to get all for their own benefit at the expense of their brethern.

We are hoping that ministerial support will equal last year, but considering all the claims we are not expecting an advance.

World Service

Much emphasis has been placed on World Service this year, both by Pastors and District Superintendents and the Bishop. The various causes for which World Service stands have been thoroughly explained to the people and strong appeals made for their support. In the early spring five centers were chosen in the conference, one in each of the five districts and both ministers and laymen were invited to be present and the five District Superintendents and Bishop Smith, with the aid of some of the laity and ministers discussed the various phases of the World Service Program, and the ministers took up the information and carried it on to the churches throughout the Conference much interest was created, but what the results of the campaign will be in the increased contribution to World Service we are not quite able to determine, as a whole we are expecting an advance, the effort was worthwhile if we were able to check the slump that has been going on each year for several years.

Trained Ministry

One of the outstanding needs of Holston Conference is trained ministers. The Summer School of Theology conducted each year at Athens is of great value in helping to meet the needs, but it can not meet the full needs. Better school and more boys and girls graduating for these schools under well trained teachers are sending them forth with a broader view of things, and any old thing will not do longer either in their material life or their religious life. To meet this new day we must have better trained preachers. Why not, to practice medicine you must be trained in medicine; to practice dentistry you must be trained in dentistry, to practice law you must be trained in law, to practice mechanical arts one must be trained in his chosen handicraft; to teach in the schools one must be trained in the art of teaching; to preach the Gospel one must be trained in the things of the Gospel, you can no more make a preacher without training than you can make any other professional man without training. We are glad that the church is placing a higher standard of training upon all who come into its ranks.

Facing the Future

The great mission of the church is to save the world, and our mission is to save the part in which we live and labor. Less than 45% of the people among whom we live belong to the church and make no pretention toward religion; that means that over 55% of our people need the uplifting influence of the Gospel. This is our day to work, our fathers did their work in their day, our children will do their work in their day; how well they will do their work depends largely upon how well we do our work. But few of those who are out of the church and over twenty-five years old will ever come into its fold, our great field of service is among the young. If we are to have a better generation we must save the children of this generation. We must have a closer connection between the Sunday School and the church; we are losing thousands yearly because we have not been able under our present methods of work to land them for Christ and the church. Our methods should be so adjusted that the Sunday School will be a training ground for membership in the church.

With thankfulness to our Heavenly Father for his mercies toward us through another year we submit this our report.

Standing Committees and Boards

EDUCATION

Methodism from its beginning has stressed the importance of education. Methodist schools have a property value of at least one hundred million dollars. There are forty Wesley Foundations in connection with tax-supported or private institutions, where many Methodist young people are taking courses of instruction. There are more than 100,000 young people enrolled in the schools of the Church, many of whom are in training for ministerial and lay leadership.

Murphy Collegiate Institute

Murphy Collegiate Institute, Sevierville, Tennessee, is doing a very commendable work among its constituency. It has a fine campus and three commanding buildings. During the past year a handsome gift from an unnamed donor has been received, to be used in constructing an auditorium and gymnasium. Other conditional gifts have relieved measurably the burdensome debt of thirty thousand dollars reported at the conference session a year ago. Those who have authority to speak feel that a new day has dawned for the institution. The student body is intelligent, earnest, studious and wide awake. Money invested here will bring large dividends in stalwart character. We recommend that Murphy Day be observed again by every charge in the Conference, and that the first Sunday in April be observed for this purpose, or as near thereafter as the Pastor may find convenient.

Tennessee Wesleyan College

Tennessee Wesleyan College, Athens, Tennessee, reached its highest enrollment last year, and even a larger number are expected to enroll this year.

We record our gratification at the successful completion of the first unit of the campaign for endowment, and call upon our people to continue to stand behind the institution, to the end that it may become firmly established financially and be in position to render to our young people the educational service they need.

We commend the College for its efforts to maintain high standards of scholarship and conditions favorable to the highest development physically, intellectually, and religiously of the young people entrusted to it. We recommend the setting aside of one Sunday in the year, preferably in the month of May, which shall be observed as Christian Education Sunday, at which time the importance of this work will be stressed in every pulpit in the conference, with special emphasis for the schools of our own conference.

University of Chattanooga

The services rendered by the University of Chattanooga cannot be measured by statistics. Five hundred students took courses for credit last year. The value of the plant is more than $2,500,000. The figures are easily stated, but it requires the use of our imaginations to appreciate these figures. A feature of great significance is the training for laymen which is being given by this institution through its regular courses of study and its extension courses.

Under the Presidency of Dr. Arlo A. Brown the University made great and wonderful progress. It is therefore with regret that we note his going from us. His presence and membership in our Conference has been a great inspiration to us all. We believe that he and his predecessors have laid a foundation upon which others may safely build. We felicitate him upon the higher task which has fallen to him, that of the Presidency of Drew Theological Seminary of Madison, New Jersey.

We also wish to congratulate the trustees of the University in securing for President of the institution the services of a worthy successor in the person of Dr. Alexander Guerry of Chattanooga. His fine record of past achievements gives full assurance that he will "carry on" in a splendid fashion, and that the future progress of the University is assured. We welcome him as our leader for this great and growing institution.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

During these days of religious education our young people are looking to the church as never before. We feel that our high school and college young people need guidance and help during the crucial moments of their young life. And to this task the Epworth League offers opportunity and assistance. To this great work of helping our young people, the church as a whole, presents a solid front, co-operating with the Epworth League in carrying out its program of religious education.

The twenty-four hour day plan as carried out by our local Chapters is conducive to the task of religious education, and the four-fold program of the Epworth League offers the best plan possible in making our "Young Peoples' Work for Young People" a success. The Holston Annual Epworth League Institute is a source of much strength to Holston Young People, and all pastors and Leaguers who miss this annual occasion are great losers in the field of religious education.

All pastors and District Superintendents should assist all our Epworth League Chapters in the forming of their programs in making their work a success in the local Chapter.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

During the year marked progress has been made in the work of the Sunday Schools. We rejoice over the fine response the pastors and Sunday School workers have given to the Conference program of religious education. Because of this, teacher training has been promoted, and Vacation Bible Schools conducted on a scale far greater than last year. Our Sunday School equipment is gradually being made more adequate; our teaching materials and hymn books are being improved, and our teachers are gaining a clearer understanding of their purpose as teachers of religion, and are becoming more efficient in helping their pupils realize that purpose in the development of Christian character.

EDUCATION OF NEGROES

The needs and longings, powers and possibilities, of ten million souls of the Negro race present a fruitful field of Christian service. The problem consists of illiteracy, poverty, race prejudice, industrial restrictions, unspeakable living conditions and inadequate leadership.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has been the greatest factor in their uplift. Our seventeen Negro schools have educated two hundred thousand students and they in turn many others, but as an eminent educator said, "There are three times as many negroes seeking an entrance to our schools today as were a few years ago."

True education must include the training of the heart as well as the mind. We, as a church, acknowledge our duty in offering to every person the privilege of Christian education, and with this goal in view endeavor to press forward with our institutions of learning for Negroes.

CHURCH LITERATURE

The Methodist Book Concern sends to us every year a very fine selection of the best books on the market. The display at this session of the Conference is large and valuable and deserves our liberal patronage.

The Southern Edition of the Western Christian Advocate continues to hold a warm place in our hearts. It has been greatly enlarged and is an invaluable asset in our work. Every pastor should stress its circulation and do his utmost to place it in all Methodist homes. If this be done every department of church work will take on new life. Nothing would so strengthen our Methodism in this section as a copy of the Southern Edition of the Advocate in every household. We can put it there. Let us highly resolve to do it.

WORLD SERVICE

"Christ for the world, and the world for Christ" has ever been the slogan of Methodism. World Service is the name now used to describe the world-wide missionary and philanthropic work of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

It is reliably stated that only one-third of the members of the church make any contribution to World Service. We believe the reason for this to be a lack of thorough understanding of the meaning and service of the great Boards comprising World Service. It is essential that our people be informed on these World Service Agencies. We, therefore, recommend the following as a plan for the Holston Conference:

That a World Service message be given by the pastor at least five times a year.

That a layman speak once each month on some phase of World Service.

That there be a distribution of World Service literature.

That the use of World Service Bulletins be adopted.

That stereoptican lectures be frequently given.

That missionary study classes be organized and missionary pageants be presented.

We recommend the following procedure in raising World Service accepted goals.

That a census be taken annually to reach each member and constituent.

That a World Service Council function in each local church.

That one Sunday in each month be recognized as World Service Sunday.

That Epworth League Chapters adopt the twenty-four day plan.

That a World Service Offering be received on special days, such as Christmas and Easter.

That each church have a separate World Service Treasurer.

That World Service money be sent to the World Service Treasurer, 740 Rush Street, Chicago, before the tenth of each month.

That Duplex envelopes be used where practicable.

That we have as our objective for the Holston Conference the raising of at least the World Service goal for each charge.

AMENDMENT 5 TO CONSTITUTION OF PREACHERS AID SOCIETY

Article 3, Membership, Item 1: The membership in this society shall consist of the effective and retired members of Holston Conference. Probationers of the conference may become members, by the payment of the annual dues.

Item 2, Beneficiaries: The beneficiaries of this society shall consist of the retired members of Holston Conference, widows of deceased members, who are otherwise entitled to annuity consideration, and children under the age of 16 years.

Item 3, Dues: The dues of this society shall be two (2) dollars per year, payable each year at the annual session of the conference. If any member does not pay the dues yearly, then his dues and forfeits shall be collected out of his first annuities as a retired member of Holston Conference. Amount of forfeit shall be $2.00 per year for each fee outstanding.

Item 4, Collection of Dues: When there is no field agent elected by the Trustees of this society, the secretary of the Board of Trustees shall be authorized to collect the annual dues.

Chairman—R. L. STAPLETON,
L. D. HAMIL,
O. R. TARWATER,
M. C. BRUNER,
W. K. HARRIS.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

From the opening session of this conference there has seemed to be a sense of joy and happiness in all of our hearts. Our fellowship has been a real happiness in all of our hearts. Our fellowship has been a real blessing to us. Our work has been pleasant. The beauty and grandeur of this sanctuary has helped us to enter into a spirit which makes a conference great. When we entered this church we wanted to pray. Praise God for His guidance in leading the good people of this church to erect this monument to the glory of God and to the work of His kingdom.

We have come anew to face our task. We are filled with gratitude as we think of what God has wrought, and our souls are stirred as we lift our faces to the future. For these things we wish to express our thanks to all those who have made it possible. The entertainment committee and Dr. and Mrs. O. R. Tarwater deserve our deepest gratitude, and members and friends of the church have opened their homes, and in a most excellent way the ladies of the church have prepared and served our meals. We wish to thank them for their many acts of kindness.

The speakers have come to us with messages of vision and power. We thank them and pledge our loyalty to the work they represent.

The pageant given Saturday evening by the Women's Home Missionary Society was a fitting climax to our evening programs. We thank all who took part in that excellent program.

We thank the Press for giving such liberal and fair reports of the conference work.

We wish to express our appreciation to our Methodist Book Concern for the splendid book store and the services rendered to our pastors and people.

We commend the Laymen's Association for their efforts in the cause of religious education and heartily thank our laymen for their loyal support of the church and the ministry.

We wish to express to the Cabinet and the conference committees our appreciation of their faithfulness in the discharge of their duties.

We have had the great joy of having Bishop Locke to preside over our conference. He has inspired and guided us in our study for the advancement of our conference work. He has a warm place in our hearts and we wish to express our sincere love and appreciation and pray God's richest blessings upon him as he labors elsewhere.

We thank our Heavenly Father for a place in His kingdom where we can toil for Him and for His people, and pledge our highest loyalty to Christ and His Church.

Respectfully submitted,

Committee,

GEO. J. CRESWELL,

R. E. WALKER,

H. C. COLEMAN.

RESOLUTION

Resolved that it is the sense of this Conference that all matters of expense, pertaining to travel and entertainment upon the Annual Conference should be equalized among the various pastoral charges upon an equitable basis. To be determined by a special committee appointed by the Conference for this purpose.

RESOLUTION ON PREACHERS' RESERVE PENSION FUND

IN VIEW OF THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

1. That the percapita amount paid the retired men by the Holston Conference is the lowest with two exceptions of any of the regular 68 conferences in the United States.

The average is but $144 a year.

2. That the Board of Pensions and Relief of the Methodist Episcopal Church are urging upon the various conferences the feasibility and necessity of raising and maintaining a Reserve Pension Fund to provide adequately for the retired men.

3. That the justification for the wisdom of such provision is shown by the fact that there are abundant examples in other conferences. 29 of the 68 conferences have already raised funds for $300,000 to $1,000,000, while 17 have raised from $100,000 to $300,000.

That in view of the fact that any new pension system will take care of entrants only, and that to care for the retired men now and those who may retire within the next twenty years we must make adequate provision in a Reserve Pension Fund.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That we proceed at once to raise the sum of $335,000 as a reserve Pension Fund. This fund includes $35,000 for expense of a five years campaign.

2. That a committee of seven be constituted with authority to proceed, with the co-operation of the resident bishop and the cabinet, on the following basis:

- a. The committee shall secure an efficient field man at a salary not to exceed five thousand dollars and one thousand dollars a year expenses for five years to direct the work and raise the fund.
- b. The campaign and collection of funds shall be extended over a period of five years and subscriptions to be made on the basis of three years.
- c. That $200,000 of the amount shall be apportioned to the various districts of the conference in proportion to the pastor's salaries as shown in the Holston Conference minutes of the year 1928, '29, and that $135,000 shall be raised by special contributions.
- d. That each member of the conference except the retired men, shall pay into the treasury, which shall be constituted for holding the funds, two percent of his cash salary and house rent which shall in each case be valued at 15% of the cash salary. That each member of the conference pay this promptly so that he may participate fullfully in the annuity.

- e. This assessment shall be paid quarterly.
- f. The above committee shall be named by the district superintendents confirmed by the conference.

Signed,

Committee: R. L. STAPLETON,
T. O. MARSHALL,
D. B. COOPER,
W. F. PITTS,
C. W. SULLIVAN.

RECOMMENDATION

The committee on the Reserve Pension Fund recommends strongly that the members of the conference send their checks for the two per cent of their salary and house rent monthly.

The first monthly payment was due Oct. 1, 1929.

All checks should be made to Dr. W. M. Dye. The minutes will designate each year the names of all men who are paid in full for the year.

Every member of the Conference in whatever position in the Conference or out shall pay two per cent of his salary.

A retired man pays nothing on his annuity but if he is employed on a charge or otherwise he shall pay two per cent of that sum.

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that this volume is a complete record of the proceedings of the Eighty-Sixth Session of the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and is adopted by the Conference as its official record.

NOTE: Checks in amount of $47.00 were returned and not made good. I had settled with nearly all Boards before checks came back. I deducted from cash reported in Minutes for the charges amounts not paid to Boards and Claimants and saved $16.50 leaving one charge due to make good $18.50 of $21.50 check, and another charge due to make good $12.00 of $17.00 check returned and not made good. When the charges make good these balances, or I get same refunded by Boards to which paid, $30.50 will be added to above cash balance making total cash balance to be invested as ordered by the Conference Oct. 19th, $948.58. Two other checks, one for $5.50 and one for $3.00 were returned before I made settlement with Boards and I charged them from cash reported by the respective charges and the Minutes will show that much less than turned in at Conference. This checking on Banks without sufficient funds to cover is not good business or Christianity.

WILLIAM F. PITTS, Treasurer,
Holston Conference,
P. O. Box 1494,
Knoxville, Tennessee.

Since above put in type $21.50 check has been made good.

WILLIAM F. PITTS.

Report of Treasurer, Preachers' Aid Society

Dr. W. F. Pitts, Treasurer Holston Conference now in session, Johnson City, Tenn.

Dear Dr. Pitts:

I am handing you herewith my report as treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society for the year 1928-'29.

Total amount of Permanent Fund of the Preachers' Aid Society
$47,500.00. These loans are all well secured, being first mortgage on farm lands and residential property and not over 40 to 50% of the actual value. As additional security each loan is protected by insurance made payable to the Preachers' Aid Society.

All interest is paid with the exception of one loan of $1,400.00.
Six months interest is in arrears since Oct. 1, 1929. I have pressed settlement for this interest but up to the time of making out this report it had not come in. However he did promise to get this in for my report.

MEMOIRS

MRS. L. A. ROMINGER

Drussilla Taylor was born June 9, 1847, and departed this life November 14, 1928, age 81 years, 5 months, and 5 days. She was married to the Reverend L. A. Rominger December 23, 1865, and to this union 10 children were born, 3 of whom preceeded her to the Spirit world. Mrs. Rominger was of the quiet, unassuming type, who took up her duties in the parsonage, and looked after its interests, and the interests of the children in a wonderful way, never complaining of the arduous tasks involved upon a Methodist preacher's wife. She lived a life of self-sacrifice, and died believing in her God who had supported and helped her through life. Her funeral was conducted by the Rev. W. L. Oliver, assisted by Rev. George R. Rowan, A. C. Ketron, and Judge Humphrey, at Red Hill near Cleveland, Tenn., and the body laid to rest in the cemetery near by to await the call to the Home that Jesus spoke of when He said "I go to prepare a place for you."

THE REVEREND LEWIS A. ROMINGER

The Reverend Lewis A. Rominger was born April 17, 1847, and died at Cleveland, Tenn., December 12, 1928. He was 81 years, 7 months, and 25 days of age when he was called to his reward. He was happily married to Drusilla Taylor December 23, 1865, and she was called away just 4 weeks prior to his going. He was converted in early life, gave his time to God, joined the Blue Ridge Atlantic Conference in 1886, ordained Deacon in 1889 by Bishop Joyce, and Elder by Bishop Mallalieu in 1895. He was transferred to the Holston Conference in 1903, and served the following charges: Cleveland Circuit, North Athens, Niota, McDonald and was retired in 1917. Brother Rominger witnessed many conversions during his ministry was always a man of God, and in his declining years was a faithful attendant at church. His funeral services were conducted by the Rev. A. C. Ketron, assisted by the Rev. C. D. Mehaffey and Judge Humphrey, a layman whom he loved dearly, at Red Hill Church, and his remains laid to rest in the cemetery near by. His work is done, his labor ended, and he has gone to be with God.

REV. W. S. GRANT

Rev. W. S. Grant was born February, 1858, and died November 2, 1928. He was admitted on trial in the Holston Conference in 1890, served the following charges: Tazewell Ct., Chatata, Lowdon, Athens, Second Church, Bristol District, Inskip, and Park City, Ridgedale, Business Manager of Advocate Journal, Conference Evangelist, East Main Ave. Brother Grant was always cheerful and happy in his work, enthusiastic and untiring in his labors. He was a strong preacher of the old-fashioned gospel. He believed the Bible with all of his heart, and saw many won to the Service of the Master. His name has been recorded among the ranks of the honored heroes for several years, but from now on it will appear in the roll of "Our Sainted Dead" Brother Grant's work on earth is done, and he has gone on to receive the fruits of his labors.

MRS. E. C. FERGUSON

Miss Flora Roberts was born, June, 1855. She was in her early life, a student in the schools of her native city, and later taught in its high school, and received afterwards the A.B. degree from Chaddock College. She then taught in a college in Mexico, Mo. Then she returned to Quincy where she taught art in Chaddock College, and was preceptress in it for some years. While preceptress she was married on September 8, 1890, to Professor Edwin C. Ferguson, who for a few years had taught Latin and Greek in Chaddock College. After their marriage they came to Chattanooga, Tenn.—Mrs. Ferguson having charge of the art department there during 1890-1892, and later in the same work at Athens, Tenn., during 1892-1895. During the first part of their long stay in Athens, they had rooms in Bennett Hall on the campus, for young lady students. Later they bought a lot, and built a house in which they lived until Dr. Ferguson's voluntary retirement as teacher in the university in 1924. Then the home was sold and they removed to Florida—spending for a few winters there, and the summers in Asheville, N. C. She died May 5, 1929 at Quincy, Ill.

SARA HITE WINSLOW

Sarah Hite Winslow, wife of the Rev. W. C. Winslow, pastor of the Gate City Methodist Episcopal Church, died at her home at Gate City, Va., Friday evening, February 8, about 8:30, from a very short illness of influenza and pneumonia. She had only been sick since Saturday, February 2, and her condition was not considered serious until Friday noon. Everything possible was done for her relief, but with no avail. Mrs. Winslow was a daughter of Hicks and Melvina Hite, of Sullivan County, Tenn., and was born September 15, 1883. She was a descendant of one of the old families of Sullivan County, and her people have helped make the history of that county. She was a sincere and true Christian mother and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She is survived by her husband, the Rev. W. C. Winslow, and four children: Mary, Francis, James, and Clara; one step-son, Milton Winslow, University of Tennessee, Memphis; also six brothers and sisters; G. D. Hite, Plenny Hite, O. G. Hite, Frank Hite, Leman Hite, Mrs. Benjamin Grills, Mrs. Thomas Blakely, all of Kingsport, Tenn.; Jasper Hite, Fall Branch, Tenn.; Miss Pearl Hite, University of Chattanooga, Chattanooga, Tenn., and her step-mother, Mrs. Rebecca Hite. Her mother and father died some years ago. A short funeral service was conducted from the Gate City Methodist Episcopal Church by the Revs. J. B. Craft, J. R. King, J. W. Vermillion, and C. C. Blair, all of Gate City, Va. The regular service was conducted at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Chuckey, Tenn., Sunday afternoon, at 1:30 p. m. Interment was at Rheatown Cemetery, Chuckey, Tenn. Pallbearers at Gate City were: O. T. Jennings, Charles Baker, John Penleton, H. W. Culbertson, Belt H. Quillin, and R. V. Wolfe. Those at Chuckey were her nephews: Cecil Armstrong, Ray Armstrong, Clyde Armstrong, Fred Armstrong, Joseph Armstrong, and Samuel Range. Funeral service at Chuckey was conducted by the Rev. Milburn, of Morristown, assisted by a number of pastors, close friends of the Rev. Winslow and his wife. The funeral was largely attended by friends from a number of East Tennessee counties and from Scott County, Va.

OUR SAINTED DEAD

*Elders elected to preside in absence of bishop.

In 1844 the great division occurred, and in 1845 the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was organized. Continuous activity in Holston Conference Methodist Episcopal Church was abandoned until the close of the Civil War. In 1865 the Holston Conference was re-organized at Athens, Tenn., under Presidency of Bishop David W. Clark.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR EXAMINERS AND CANDIDATES

1. The work of the Board is divided into six groups: Admission on trial; first, second, third, and fourth years; and Local Orders. Each group to be in the hands of a committee—one of the committee-men to be chairman of the committee.

2. Mid-year examinations are required; time and place to be arranged and announced.

3. The day preceding the opening of the Annual Conference is the time appointed for examination.

4. The candidates are urged to buy their books at the very opening of the year, and study carefully the mid-year subjects, and after the mid-year examinations make complete survey of the remaining subjects immediately. The examiners are required to correspond with the candidates in the early winter, preparatory to mid-year examinations.

5. The requirements of the Discipline are to make the examinations written if practicable, and two weeks ahead of the Annual Conference to send written questions to the Chairman of the Board.

6. The chairman of each group is to submit in writing the grades of the candidates in his department to the registrar.

7. The provision for the mid-year examinations shall not deprive any candidate for admission on trial of the opportunity of being examined at the time appointed for the examination at the Annual Conference.

8. The Board of Examiners, together with the candidates, are called to meet at the place of the next Annual Conference session the night previous to the day of Conference examinations.

CONFERENCE RULES

1. No person shall absent himself from the sessions of the conference without leave unless he be sick or otherwise unable to attend.

2. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the conference proceedings, which he shall cause to be published in the Annual Journal of the conference, and it shall be the official journal. He shall edit the minutes and all matter for publication, and shall make contracts for the printing of the journal as in his judgment may seem best. He shall have charge of the journal and conference files and forward them to the place of meeting of the annual conference each year.

3. All committees whose reports are to be printed in the journal shall present their reports to the secretary in writing, otherwise the committee on publication is not required to insert such reports in the journal.

4. All candidates for admission on trial, for admission into full membership, for admission on credentials from other churches, for re-admission, and for recognition of orders, shall be required to appear before the Committee on Conference Relations and the Board of Examiners, and to furnish such information as may be required touching their general character and their qualifications for the ministry.

5. All cases involving a change in conference relations or withdrawal shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

6. Widows of deceased ministers who have ever traveled with their husbands may be temporary claimants, and may be referred to the board of Stewards, who shall decide each case from year to year.

7. The chairman of the board of stewards shall be ex-officio one of the assistant secretaries of the conference for secretarial work in connection with conference claimants, and shall be the last number of the Committee on Memoirs.

8. The memorial service for deceased members, and for the wives of members shall be the special order the first day of conference at the close of the communion service.

9. Conference visitors shall be allowed 10 minutes in which to address the conference. District Superintendents' reports shall be limited to 15 minutes, and reports of committees, except the board of Stewards, to five minutes.

10. All applications for special collections to be apportioned to the charges in the conference shall be referred to the Committee on Special Collections.

11. There shall be elected each year a Nominating Committee, consisting of three members, which committee shall nominate the Standing Committees and the Committee on Nominations for the ensuing session. No member of the Nominating Committee shall be eligible for consecutive re-election to the committee.
